Dear Parents/Guardians,

We have been notified by members of the Australian Education Union that a number of their members will be taking industrial action on Thursday 14th February in support of their enterprise bargaining negotiations with the State Government.

As a consequence, we cannot staff a significant number of classes, and so students in Years 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are not required at school on Thursday 14th February.

Classes will be timetabled for all students in Year 7 classes but, in many cases, students may not be taught by their regular teacher due to the industrial action.

If you choose to send your child to school, they will be given work to do and will be fully supervised, but a normal program cannot be provided. Your child will not be penalised if you choose to keep your child at home.

We understand that this may be an inconvenience; however, we must ensure that we can safely care for students in our charge on Thursday.

As the school canteen will not operate on the day, any students attending the college must bring a prepared lunch with them in the morning.

Yours sincerely

Christopher Lloyd
College Principal
