26th November, 2012

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We have been notified by members of the Australian Education Union that a number of their members will be taking industrial action on the morning of Wednesday 28th November, in support of their enterprise bargaining negotiations with the State Government.

As a consequence, we cannot staff a significant number of classes, and so students in Years 9, 10 and 11 are not required at school on Wednesday, 28th November from 8:20 until 12:00, 2012. Normal classes for all students will resume at 12:08 (Period 4) for all students in Years 7 – 11.

Classes will continue as timetabled for students in Year 7 and 8. Examinations will continue as per the previously distributed modified exam schedule for all students in Years 10 and 11. In a number of Year 7 & 8 classes students may not be taught by their regular teacher during Periods 1 to 3 due to the industrial action. Normal classes and usual teachers will operate as of P4.

We understand that this may be an inconvenience; however, we must ensure that we can safely care for students in our charge on Wednesday.

Yours sincerely,

Christopher Lloyd
College Principal
